Quick Quotes

Q. Down the stretch, what are you thinking? What's the strategy?

GORDON SARGENT: I mean, you've still just got to give yourself chances. You can't really control what they're doing. My goal was to kind of just be inside of him, have a putt to win the hole. I had a couple in the last couple holes and thankfully made that one on 17, but that was pretty nerve-racking. Hampton played pretty well.

Q. You've gotten through a close match now. How do you think that will help you going forward this afternoon and hopefully the rest of the week?

GORDON SARGENT: Yeah, I think I know what I need to work on. Kind of just tighten it up. Got game plan for this afternoon, so I'd like to have a practice round on this now that we somehow won that match.

Q. On 18 did you know that you'd have to birdie?

GORDON SARGENT: Yeah, Hampton had gotten up-and-down from everywhere, and I was like -- I feel most comfortable with the driver, so I just ripped it and got a good break in the rough and hit a good one in there. Thankfully I was able to two-putt that one.
