Quick Quotes

KRIS TSCHETTER: I have the tournament in Minnesota next week. It's kind of nice to have another tournament to play in.

Q. So Kris, great week.

KRIS TSCHETTER: Thank you.

Q. Top 10 finish. Tell me your thoughts overall on the week.

KRIS TSCHETTER: Well, I hoped to play better obviously. I was -- I really pointed towards this tournament and was trying to practice more and play and walk, and so I expected to play better.

But, you know, hadn't played well in a while so it feels good to at least have a Top 10.

Q. Great. Overall thoughts --

KRIS TSCHETTER: You can always want more but you got to enjoy the moment.

Q. Of course. Of course. Overall thoughts on Brooklawn as a venue.

KRIS TSCHETTER: Oh, man, it just played so many different ways with the wind and then the rain and it softened up and then the greens got fast again.

You know, I wish I could play it for another week or even more to really understand it. Like a lot of it was just guessing. You hit it in a place that you're going, Oh, shoot. I've never been here, I didn't practice, I have no idea what it's going to do.

Sometimes you look at it from both sides, like the one on 17. I looked at it from behind there and it looked like it was pretty flat, and then I looked at it from below the hole and looked like it was straight downhill.

You're like, Well, I don't want to be wrong because you can just look like an idiot, so...

Q. What's next for you?

... when all is said, we're done.®
