Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Nanna Koerstz Madsen after her second round at the Ford Championship. Really good round today. I know you got going well at end with the four birdies in five holes. Just tell me about your rounded and especially the last stretch of really good golf.

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I was struggling off the tee. I started hitting a couple drives to the right which is my really bad miss, so at the end I just tried to swing more left and it worked a little bit. I got it in the fairway, and, yeah, made a couple good birdies there.

Q. I know early birdie on 11 and then it was just a bunch of pars. Did that frustrate you at all or how did you stay patient and know the birdies would come later?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I mean, it was tricky out there. The greens were really firm. It got a little windy. All the par-4s were fine. It was good to make pars.

I was a little frustrated with some of the par-5s, that I didn't get a couple birdies there, but other than that I just stayed patient.

Q. Knowing you had a good round yesterday and coming in when the conditions were different, how did you prepare for that this morning or maybe last night?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Just try and have my expectations low. I was still struggling a little bit with my swing, some things that I didn't feel very great about.

So, yeah, just try and stay patient.

Q. Awesome. Last question: Tomorrow is moving day. Another afternoon tee time. What are some of the goals or plans for tomorrow?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Right now I'm going to go to the range to see if I can straighten out that right miss.

Hopefully I can do that, and then I'm going to attack tomorrow.
