Quick Quotes

Q. Joined by Jenny Shin. Jenny, Top 5 finish here at the Walmart NW Arkansas Championship presented by P&G. How would you describe your three days of play here?

JENNY SHIN: Started out great and then the frustration just kind of kept on building. Wasn't my best performance today, even though I hit 17 greens which is -- I've not done that in a very long time. I had 31 putts, which is really unfortunate.

I did my best. I tried not to look at the leaderboard. I just knew I had to shoot like 8-under today to at least have a chance, so it was a bit frustrating.

Q. You mentioned it when we talked a couple days ago, you love coming here. Is that why you think you play so well here? Last five starts you finished in the top 10 three of those starts. What is it about this place that brings out the best in your game?

JENNY SHIN: Yeah, I don't know. If you like something, you like something. I just kind of had that mindset kind of coming into the week knowing that I can do well, and that helps a ton.

Q. And the last one: We've seen a lot of Korean golfers at the top of the leaderboard this week. What does that say about the state of Korean golf in the LPGA?

JENNY SHIN: I mean, no offense, but it's been going on for a while, so no surprise. You know, I mean, I don't know. We're just really good. I don't know how because the golf facilities and all the conditions in Korea is just not anywhere near America.

So I don't know how the girls do it either, but yeah, something we're good at I think.
