Q. So brilliantly played today. 5-under for the round. Can you just talk to me a little bit about how you felt on the links?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: Today feel a lot easier than yesterday. Yeah, yesterday in the afternoon, you know, rain and wind was so strong. Completely different today. So I think it's a lot better. But there's two holes that the putt is just only like three feet and I didn't make it.

Q. And you've had some brilliant finishes on links golf this year, especially winning the Trust Golf Link Series. Can you just talk to me about how you feel comfortable on the links? Is there anything you do to prepare?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: My first win in Europe for the Links Series, really I felt a lot more confident this year, but last year was my first time. I don't think it's like good enough, but this year I'm a lot more confident.

Q. And one of your goals is to go to LPGA Qualifying School. Can you just talk a little bit about that. What would be your best outcome this week?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: So now I'm just waiting for the world ranking, if I will be on the top 400. If it's that way, if it works that way, then I'll get to second stage, yeah.

Yeah, this is second year, it's my second chance, I give it all in, so I'm going to do my best.

Q. You're one of the Trust Golf invites this week. What would it mean to you to finish in the top 20 at this event, and how grateful are you to Dr. Prin for giving you this opportunity?

CHANETTEE WANNASAEN: Last year I thought Europe is not my place at all, but this year has unleashed the power in myself, unlock myself. And I'm very thankful for Dr. Prin for the opportunity with this, with this spot. Like
