Quick Quotes

Q. Just talking about a very up-and-down day, only six pars on the card but managed to grind out a 2 under 70. Just walk me through your round.

NA RIN AN: I have up and down, some holes, I had fantastic play and other holes, I had some mistakes. But those up-and-downs made up the whole round for me.

Q. What when you have to grind out a round and really work very hard to get a good number in, what do you think about?

NA RIN AN: I always try to think positive and my goal is to be most optimistic throughout the round.

Q. Probably not as low as you wanted to go today but you're still in the mix heading into the weekend. What's the mindset heading into two more days of links golf? I hear it's going to be more linksy the next couple of days.

NA RIN AN: I'm going to think about the first round and the second round and average it out, what are the best places and what are the good and bad and try to plan throughout the week for round three and four.

Q. What are you going to work on after that round today? Is there anything really that was going where you want to work on some stuff?

NA RIN AN: A little bit. I'm going to work on my accuracy of shots, and then some mistakes with short putting, so I'm going to work on my short putts today.
