A Lim Kim

Quick Quotes

Q. What a final round, for the first 16 holes, what was clicking so well for you?

A LIM KIM: Putting really well, shots really well, everything's good today.

Q. Was it something you've been working on? Was putting something that you've been trying to get together for an event like this?

A LIM KIM: More practise, more hours. But same drills, the same practise process. Everything is the same.

Q. What were some of the most memorable birdies today?

A LIM KIM: I don't know. Everything is forgot now. Nothing.

Q. What was working so well, especially on that front nine, when you talk about the putting, was there any kind of shots that you thought were just going the right way for you today?

A LIM KIM: I just keep good momentum. It's not too great, not too special, so I think it's a great momentum and then doing well.

Q. How much does an event like this help going into the major next week.

A LIM KIM: I don't think so. Next week is a new week. This week is done, and next week starts a new week, yeah.

Q. Do you like playing before a major? Do you like kind of getting the European kind of air under your belt?

A LIM KIM: I like rest. But I love Scottish golf courses, and then great weather, it's great week.

Q. What do you like most about Scottish courses?

A LIM KIM: Honestly, pad thai. Thai food truck, and then great air. That is A secret.

Q. Last week, one last major to go, what are you looking forward to most about Walton Heath?

A LIM KIM: Next week, I don't know that one, but a major golf course is very important, the amazement. And everything is the same, keep going.
