Q. Obviously great round, and now you're tied fifth for the tournament. Can you just talk us through your round and how you felt today?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, I playing really solid today. I made a lot of putts and I missed many putts today. Unfortunately, like, I could play better than this position, but I'm still happy to finish top 10.

Q. And what was it about this week that you think worked so well for you?

JIN YOUNG KO: I mean, I don't know, I slept ten hours every day. I think in my retirement, I could live in Scotland.

Q. Why is that?

JIN YOUNG KO: It just feels so good.

Q. What is it about Scotland that you like so much?

JIN YOUNG KO: Just the feeling; the energy is so nice.

Q. Like the vibes?

JIN YOUNG KO: Everything, people.

Q. And obviously links golf, is that now a favourite of yours?

JIN YOUNG KO: Of course, yeah.

Q. And next week, obviously last major of the year. How do you feel going into that after playing so well this week?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, I mean, next week will be really long. So I will take my good energy before that, and I will use my energy for next week.

Q. What are goals for next week?
