Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Celine Boutier, a 1-under round today. 6-under overall. You seem to be playing well today. Tell us the story of your round.

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, very steady. I feel like my long game was pretty good today. I had a lot of birdie opportunities. Didn't make a lot them, but that's how it goes.

I just got to work on my putting a little bit today and hopefully the putts will drop tomorrow.

Q. You were out late yesterday, or later yesterday. It was pretty calm, but looks like the wind is up today. Was that a change for you today?

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, it definitely pick up a little bit, like different direction, but not too bad. Just pretty cold this morning. That was the main difference for me.

Q. You're safely into the weekend, just a couple shots off the lead. A 54-hole event, you said not necessarily your favorite. How do you go in to attack tomorrow knowing final round?

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, it's tough. I feel like this course can be really scorable, even though the scores are not necessarily that low for me. I mean, I guess on my side today.

But I just feel like it's pretty scorable. You have a lot of short irons into the greens and then reachable par-5s.

I just feel like if I give myself opportunities and make some putts, never know what can happen tomorrow.

So I'm just going to try to do my best.
