Quick Quotes

Q. Yuka, really good round today. A lot of birdies.

YUKA SASO: Thank you.

Q. Just take us through your round out there.

YUKA SASO: So my driving was so consistent today and of course my putting, too. I miss few putts, but overall it was pretty good, so happy how I'm playing.

Q. What was key for you out there, was it ball striking today or was it more your putting?

YUKA SASO: I think both. I wasn't really hitting the ball well yesterday, so feels good to be hitting the ball good today.

Q. One of the lower rounds we've seen from you in a while. How good does it feel to get back that deep in numbers?

YUKA SASO: It feels good when you play 5- or 6-under in a day. It feels good, so hopefully I can keep this going.

Q. You're seeing new courses every week. What's been the key for you in terms of adjusting to a new venue every week, and did you like this place right off the bat?

YUKA SASO: Obviously the golf course is very beautiful. Wind is a little bit tricky.

And about playing well on the new course, I think asking advices from the fellow golfers and learning from them while playing, I think that's been my key.

Q. Who do you ask for advice?

YUKA SASO: Almost everyone.

Q. Who has given you the best advice?

YUKA SASO: Everyone.

Q. Oh, goodness. Is there anyone in particular that has said something to you that's stood out? Anything that you remember that one specific player has said to you?

YUKA SASO: For this week?

Q. Just in general, this week and in general.

YUKA SASO: Actually a lot, because I really ask a lot of players. I think I don't have much experience as they do so I just kind of trying to get everything in and try to figure it out myself.

So, yeah, thank you to all the golfers out here. Yeah.
