Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Narin after the third round. I think we talked to you or the past couple days. Keep playing consistent golf. What was the round like today for you?

NARIN AN: Today was way less than yesterday the wind. So much like calmer and then I could focus on my play a little bit more. So, yeah. Was good.

Q. And what kind of stuck out in your game today? Was it the putting? The approach? Driver?

NARIN AN: First one was putt. Like beginning of the today like round was quite a few putts was really hard, but I saved it.

So, yeah, it makes more momentum to good signal, yeah.

Q. And I was going to ask you about your caddie. You both seem to have a good relationship out there. What do you think he really helps you with a lot while you're out there?

NARIN AN: I think more feels comfortable during play so that makes more relaxed, not rush like, yeah.

Q. When you get into these situations, late-game contention situations, where does your confidence come from?

NARIN AN: I just try to my game like more focus, like every shot, shot by shot. So that makes more make confidence. Yeah, that's why I think.

Q. Only had one bogey for 54 holes which is wild on this golf course. How have you managed to eliminate mistakes?

NARIN AN: I think feels like somebody helps me, like sometimes like unbelievable save, like from like -- for example today was 15, 16 steps by my steps for par. Was in. Like how?

So, yeah, I feel like, yeah, someone help me.

Q. How excited are you to be in contention at this tournament heading into tomorrow?

NARIN AN: I think I just same as three round, first three rounds. Just keep focus shot by shot and just do my play.

Q. Obviously life-changing amount of money on the line.

NARIN AN: Yeah.

Q. Have you considered what that would look like for you, a check that would be $4 million or even $1 million goes second place?

NARIN AN: It would be good like get $4 million, but I think do my best first, yeah.
