Quick Quotes

Q. Jodi, just take us through the day today, and then also playing with Brian Urlacher and the connection you two have.

JODI EWART SHADOFF: Yeah, today was very steady. One bogey, one birdie, the rest pars. Overall it was a really good day. Burned a lot of edges. Just one of these days where the putts don't drop, but I am very happy where my game is right now, and looking forward to the weekend.

It was really fun out there playing with Brian. First time we've ever met. It was funny walking down one of the early holes he goes, did you go to UNM. I'm like, yeah. He's like, so did I. I'm like, yeah, I know. You were like the legend.

So it was really cool to meet him in person and play with him, and Jack, too.

Q. Both in the college Hall of Fame, as well.

JODI EWART SHADOFF: Yeah. It's really good just to finally meet him. I went through four years of college and he's all everyone could talk about when I was there, so really cool to play 18 holes with him today.

Q. And his golf game?

JODI EWART SHADOFF: Pretty good. Yeah, no, he played well today. He said he was pretty happy with how he played. He can hit it pretty good and holed a few really good putts today.
