Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Wei-Ling Hsu after her second round here at the Hilton Grand Vacations Tournament of Champions. Bit of a crazy front nine today. Can you take us through that and what was sort of working for you and what wasn't?

WEI-LING HSU: I actually feel I played a lot better than yesterday. It's just the par-3 and the front nine. I had two three-putt, like three-putt on each hole. So like I couldn't putt like more safely, but like my first putt was like too aggressive trying to get close. So I think I just -- I'm just trying to forget everything about it.

But overall, I still feel very positive today, and especially my driver and my iron shots today is a lot better than yesterday.

Q. How tricky were the greens and how important is putting out here?

WEI-LING HSU: I think you just need to get on the green in the right spot, that way you don't have trickiest putt on the green. I would say that two par-3, that was -- I was on the green like very close to the pin, and that's why I have really tough position putting for myself.

But I think the condition on the green are really awesome, so I actually roll it pretty good.

Q. So two 69 rounds. What are some of your goals going into the weekend? What will you do differently or maybe the same?

WEI-LING HSU: I wish I don't make three bogey in the round anymore. If I can save all that bogey then I definitely will have a better round. I mean, shooting 6-under going to say upset with that. Just saving all that bogey.
