Quick Quotes

Q. All right, Yuka, how are you feeling after day one at the Gainbridge LPGA?

YUKA SASO: I feel good. I played solid golf. I missed few putts and few greens, but my short game was really good. Putting was really good, too.

So hopefully I can keep this up.

Q. What did you take away from opening the season last week heading into this week in Boca Raton?

YUKA SASO: More feel good with my shots. Nothing really about -- from the course or anything because it's just our second tournament of the year.

Yeah, more like the feel with the shot and get the image of the shot, yeah.

Q. What do you like most about Boca Rio Golf Club. First time here, first time competing here. Some people have that experience from 2020, but I know this is your first time seeing it.

YUKA SASO: Bunkers. I'm joking. Obviously it's very beautiful. Today there was not much wind so it was a little easier than I think what it should be.

But, yeah, you need a good drive and good second shot and good putts to make score here so, yeah, very challenging.
