YUKA SASO: Yeah, I think I played really good. Finished strong. Played good golf than yesterday. I putted really well.

Yeah, everything just was good today.

Q. How impressive was it to close with a birdie on the 18th hole here?

YUKA SASO: It was very cool, wasn't it? Two days in a row.

Q. Two days in a row. Take me through the final two holes.

YUKA SASO: Like what club I hit?

Q. Yeah.

YUKA SASO: Has 140 -- almost same distance -- 140, had nine with both holes, and 17 I had 12 feet.

Last hole I had close to 20 feet.

And, yeah, I wanted to took advantage of a good shot, so it was really good.

Q. An impressive finish here at Gainbridge. How comfortable are you feeling in your game at the moment?

YUKA SASO: We are still in the second week of the season, so there is a lot of grind that has to do, the process for me to get ready for a major tournament, so I'm not trying to rush anything.

To play good is really good, but I think there is more a lot of thing for me to learn and practice. Take it slow.

Q. What are some of the things you'll focus on heading into next week?

YUKA SASO: Putting was really good, so thank you.
