Quick Quotes

Q. Celine, solid finish. Another solid event here. How are you feeling after four days at Gainbridge?

CELINE BOUTIER: Overall pretty solid week. I feel like my game has been strong all week. I currently am a little bit frustrated with some parts today, but overall pretty happy with my week I guess.

Q. Which putts are you thinking of when you say that?

CELINE BOUTIER: Just left a few like short in line, which kind of really got me frustrated.

Q. What was it like being in the final group, being in contention again? It was reminding us all of New Jersey, to be quite honest.

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, I think I was a lot more behind in New Jersey.

Q. Yes.

CELINE BOUTIER: But I feel like playing in the last group in the final day is never easy. It's a lot of extra pressure and stuff like that.

So I just feel like the more I can put myself in that position then the better I'll be able to like handle it in the future and stuff like that.

So I just take it as a learning experience.

Q. Heading into the Fort Myers area again, something a lot of LPGA players like, Florida feel. What will you take away from a this week as we continue through the Florida swing?

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, I mean, hopefully I can just keep building on that form. My game is pretty solid right now, so just hope I can do a solid week again next week.

It's a course that I don't know well. I don't think we've been there before, so we will see how it goes. Yeah, pretty happy with my game right now.

Q. After the first two weeks, how comfortable are you feeling in the start of the season being able to be in the mix like you were this past week?

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, I feel pretty happy with my -- the start, or I guess it's only two weeks, so it's tough to say. I just know that the season is long and I just want to put myself in more positions to be able to win. That's my goal.

So I hope I can keep building on that.
