LOTTE
CHAMPIONSHIP
PRESENTED BY Hoakalei

Q. All right, Yuri, the final day is over. What do you take away from this day of play?

YURI YOSHIDA: I learn many things. Ball control, distance control, green speed, many thing. So that was so nice week I think.

Q. A nice top finish for you.

YURI YOSHIDA: Uh-huh.

Q. Were you thinking about the top of the leaderboard? Were you looking at leaderboards today?

YURI YOSHIDA: Yes, many times I look leaderboards, but I couldn't make the chance for birdie, so I was so -- I was like this.

Q. You know, not a win but enough to potentially put you inside the top 100 of the points list.

YURI YOSHIDA: Uh-huh. Inside 100. Oh, okay.

Q. What would that mean for you?

YURI YOSHIDA: I'm so happy, and then I am going to play next week maybe, so I'm looking forward to go to Pelican next week.

Q. What did you like most about the LOTTE Championship?

YURI YOSHIDA: I love this grass. I played JLPGA championship this year, same grass this course. Paspalum. So I could hit very smooth, is good rhythm I think.
