Q. All right, Ryann, giving it your all today. How do you walk away from this fourth day?

RYANN O'TOOLE: I can't be disappointed, four rounds under par. Definitely was tough out there today. I watched a lot of putts just roll over the edge. Like good, solid hits.

So felt like I gave it my best effort. It was tough. I mean, I had no like magic going. You know, one of those, oh, got lucky there or anything like that.

I held in there. A Lim did not give up. She kept the pedal down. Congratulations I'm pretty sure to her.

Yeah, she played great. I knew going into today I had to get to 16. It was tough. She is probably going to win with 18, so congrats to her.

Q. What does a week like to do for your confidence?

RYANN O'TOOLE: I came into this week knowing I had to make a move, especially to get into CME. I kind of got moved out in the last few events.

So to have sixth be my top finish at this golf course, I'm happy that I got a fifth. I'll take that.

Also the hopefully this secures my CME.

Q. How will you reset? I'm sure you're playing Annika.

RYANN O'TOOLE: Yeah, I will be playing there. Sponsor, that's his golf course, DEX imaging, the Doyles. I think having Carlos on the bag, he keeps things very simple, plays more percentage shots, keeps me out of trouble, and I think that's been helping keeping the bogeys off the card.

And I think going into next week will be really good. The putter is working really well. Been putting on grain for the last couple weeks so perfect for going into that event.
