

HSBC Women's World Championship

Friday, 28 February 2025

Republic of Singapore

Sentosa Golf Club

Yealimi Noh

Quick Quotes

HSBC Women's World Championship

look down and see a really straight line.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

Q. 4-under today. Just talk about what went well.

YEALIMI NOH: Yeah, I had a pretty slow front nine. Had a couple 3-putts and bogeys. Back nine was a lot better. Went birdie, birdie, eagle. Chipped in on 13. And yeah, just missed a 3-footer for birdie on 18. But it was a good round. I'm really happy with how it went.

Q. How would you compare like conditions to what you saw yesterday?

YEALIMI NOH: Oh, a little less wind today for sure. But pretty much the same. I think the pins are not in, like, super easy spots this week. Yesterday and today, they were tucked and on knobs and stuff. I think less wind today was nice.

Q. How did you adjust to this course compared to last week?

YEALIMI NOH: I mean, it's just so hot. I'm just like -- actually this week is a little bit better. It's cool starting early. Just keeping the same tempo. I wasn't hitting it great last week. Just finding my rhythm. Found my rhythm on the back nine.

Q. Checking on your putter, you had that putter for a while now and obviously you won with it. Are you still feeling pretty good with it?

YEALIMI NOH: Yeah, yeah, it's always great. Speed is good. Missed some short putts today but need to work on those. Yeah, it's good.

Q. What do you think it's helped you with, seeing the line, the speed?

YEALIMI NOH: My speed is a lot better, much more consistent and my stroke is a lot more consistent. It's just more consistent.

Q. Do you think the design of the putter helps?

YEALIMI NOH: Yeah, because it's almost like geometrical. It's super sharp lines. So it's easy for me to

