Quick Quotes

Q. How do you feel about your really amazing performance today?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I'm happy with the round. I didn't make that many mistakes. Hit a lot of greens. Would have liked to make a couple more putts or at least get it to the hole, but I'm happy with the round overall.

Q. So this is the best position you've been in to win on the LPGA Tour. Where do you think you maximized your chances?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: My what?

Q. Your chances today. What was the strongest part of your game today?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: My driving was good. My irons was okay on couple of holes, and then couple of loose ones here and there.

Yeah, so long game.

Q. So that second shot on the last hole that set up an eagle putt chance, tell us a little bit about that hole.

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Yeah, I like 18. A lot of room on the tee, and then I can reach it no matter where the pin will be.

It was perfect. I just needed a hybrid. I didn't make the putt, but that's okay.

Q. Going into the final round, what are your thoughts on that?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: It's exciting. I don't think I've been in the lead before. Maybe at the -- oh, we were tied.

But it's exciting for tomorrow, but you just got to do what you normally do and see what it brings out for tomorrow.

Q. What will be your approach for tomorrow then?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Stay patient. You got to make a lot of the birdies but you can't force them. Then you won't make any.

You just got to stay patient and see if the putt drops.

Q. This final question, what would it mean to you to win the Honda LPGA Thailand this year?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: It would be amazing winning a first LPGA event. That's what I play for, so that would be just awesome.
