Quick Quotes

Q. Overall a really solid performance today. How did you feel about it?

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, pretty happy with my score. I feel like I struggled a bit again with my driver today, but I was able to have some good pars and a few birdies coming in, so I was pretty satisfied with the score.

Q. Tell us a little bit about the past three rounds and how it's been for you.

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, it's been pretty enjoyable. I feel like I've had a lot birdies, so that's always positive. The greens are very receptive so you can be pretty aggressive out there.

It's kind of fun to see that there is a lot of birdie opportunities, and even when you miss a few you know you can still come back with a few birdies coming in. And especially finishing with par-5 is -- may be able to reach it tomorrow, so it's kind of an exciting finish.

Q. What are your thoughts heading into the final round? You have a game plan for tomorrow?

CELINE BOUTIER: Hopefully I will be able to hit more fairways tomorrow because that will be making me more able to be aggressive on the approach shots.

I think that's my main goal for tomorrow.

Q. Final question: How do you feel playing in Thailand? I think there was a question whether your family was out here supporting you.

CELINE BOUTIER: Yeah, it's very nice to be out here. My parents and my sister are here this week, so it's nice to have them be able to watch me. I know that they're praying for birdies out there for me, so it's always nice to have they're support.

I don't think they have that many chances to come watch me play, and especially with the COVID and stuff, so it's fun to have them out here. It's been a while, so it's nice to also be able to give them something to cheer about.

Q. For the fans who are excited to see you, all the best tomorrow.

CELINE BOUTIER: Thank you.
