Q. All right, here with Jeeno after a solid first round start. Just talk about your round today and how you think it went for you.

JEENO THITIKUL: Yeah, I think I had a really good round today. Doesn't have a good, you know, like putting on like front nine much, trying to figure it out and then to roll it in the hole.

Finally make it on the last hole, which is nice.

Q. Talk about those last four holes coming down the stretch. Did you know you had a big push? Were you comfortable with the last couple holes?

JEENO THITIKUL: I think still I really want to make it. If a chance coming I want to make it so hard. But still on the process. If it's in, it's in. But if not, it's okay, because we still -- I still like need to work on the putting for the speed a little bit, yeah.

Q. A lot of fans out there watching and supporting you. Just heard them sing happy birthday to you on the last hole. What does it mean to have all this support out here this week?

JEENO THITIKUL: Yeah, I just really appreciate them, too. Like make it here on my birthday, especially I know it's so hot and then it's so tired. But they're still come and support us. It's just like I really appreciate them.

And then just want to do good for them.

Q. How would you say your birthday is going so far?

JEENO THITIKUL: Well, I think it's the first time that I heard like happy birthday song from a lot -- like the whole day of my entire life, which is good.

But still have to play a tournament.

Q. How special is it to always have your birthday around this event?

JEENO THITIKUL: It's good always. Because my birthday it's always Honda. Definitely feel like at least I'm home. At least.
