Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Mo after her second round. Another good round today. Just talk about what you felt like went well out there.

MORIYA JUTANUGARN: What went well? Maybe like making some putts is always help when you're, you know, like out on the golf course.

I think it's more like my missing is kind of like a little bit like -- sorry.

Q. Not a lot of big misses?

MORIYA JUTANUGARN: So my misses is I kind of miss it where I can play, so make it easier.

Q. Yeah. And I saw that back nine you had four birdies in a row. What was clicking during those holes for you?

MORIYA JUTANUGARN: I guess I got a lot like good chances. You know, hit them like into a certain distance. Like I give myself a good chance.

So, yeah, and then just what I say. When the putter works then you kind of felt like everything is kind of going smooth.

Q. Were you hitting those shots close and just having 15, 20-footers or...

MORIYA JUTANUGARN: Yeah, some of them a little bit closer; some of them in a good distance for birdie. Then it's just kind of trying to give myself a chance, like more chances.

Q. You were also playing in the final group today. What's it like to be playing very well and seeing who you're trying to chase in that group with you?

MORIYA JUTANUGARN: You know, it's always fun to play in the last group. Lots of people coming out. I don't really think of like trying to chasing someone. Just trying to be out there, do what I want to do, and just stay committed. Just, you know, like just -- I mean, I've been working on like a lot of stuff and just want to make sure I am trusting that.

Q. Any thoughts heading into the weekend? What are you looking forward to most about tonight and getting back out there?

MORIYA JUTANUGARN: Out here it's hot and humid of course, so trying to save energy and taking care of the body and make sure I stay fresh.
