Q. Okay, here with Patty after her third round; 7-under today. Talk about what stuck out for you.

PATTY TAVATANAKIT: I feel like my momentum was really good starting the round. Putts were dropping today. I found the speed of the green really well. Kind of what I worked on yesterday after the round and it worked out well.

Q. And defending this week, what's it been like to see so many fan and people out there watching to support you?

PATTY TAVATANAKIT: It's always been great to see all the Thai fans coming out to support all of us. It's just a nice feeling, you know, like after hitting a shot to know that you have a lot of people supporting you.

Q. And you defended before, but what's it like to see why you are face everywhere this week?

PATTY TAVATANAKIT: I try not look, but, yeah, it's a nice feeling to come back and defend in my home country.

Q. And heading into tomorrow, anything you're going to kind of work on in your game to prep for the final round?

PATTY TAVATANAKIT: Yeah, I feel like everything worked out really great today. Just going to keep my play box the same and just everything is falling into place.

I feel like I'm in a good headspace.
