Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Narin after the third of stroke play at the T-Mobile Match Play presented by MGM Rewards. Just talk about the day you had today and the conditions you battled out there.

NARIN AN: Was so tough. Like the wind's blowing so lot. Like that's why I'm trying to focus on my play, but sometimes, you know, like cannot, so, yeah.

I was try to hit ball like where am I aim at. I just try to use the winds more.

Q. Was there anything about your game that stuck out to you today? Driver? Irons?

NARIN AN: Like some parts I like each holes was different or different -- I mean, some hole good putter; some hole good iron. Mixed, all of them.

Q. Talk about will your strategy change for some of the holes headed into match play? The way you approach the hole, will that be changed since you'll be playing match play?

NARIN AN: Probably quicker than today, and depends on the player, like who play with me. Yeah. I think.

Q. What kind of match play experience do you have? How much have you played match play in the past?

NARIN AN: I had maybe five times in Korea because Korea has also match play once a year. Were then last year was yeah, at here, so total six.

Q. And how was your record in match play in Korea? Something you enjoy?

NARIN AN: Yeah. Maybe top eight is the best one, yeah.
