Q. Well, this is what it's all about, isn't it? You worked so hard to get this second win. It didn't come easy today. 4-under through six holes and your lead was gone by the 11th. From where did you dig to hang in there and fight to the end?

MADELENE SAGSTROM: Well, I think that -- I mean, I'm exhausted and I bet Lauren is exhausted. I'm so tired and I think it really kind of hit my swing there in the middle. I said to Shane, I can do this. I just need to find some sort of feeling it hit some good golf shots again.

I just kind of dug deep and be like, oh, well, hopefully it's not too many hole left. It's just amazing.

Q. We were saying it takes a lot of psychology to keep up in this format. So much golf. Mentally and physically draining. What does it mean to you at this point in your career? It's been five years since your win.

MADELENE SAGSTROM: I mean, I worked so hard. All of us work so hard. I really struggled quite a lot, especially with my driver end of last year, and I worked so hard with Callaway and my coach, Hans.

I feel so comfortable standing over the ball at the moment, and most the times it comes out nice. It's just such a nice feeling. I played pretty well last week and didn't make the cut, but it's just like it's hard because everyone works hard because it's tough out here. It's just fantastic feeling and it's just knowing that all the hard work really did pay off.
