

The Ascendant LPGA benefiting Volunteers of America

Thursday, September 29, 2022

The Colony, Texas, USA

Golf Clubs at The Tribute

Madelene Sagstrom

TV

THE ASCENDANT LPGA
BENEFITING  Volunteers
of America®

Q. Great 2-under par, Madelene. Jessica talked about how the course conditions changed from practice rounds. How did you make adjustments to be prepared to play today in such tough conditions?

MADELENE SAGSTROM: Well, I came out and it was a lot windier than I expected in general. I thought it was going to be quite calm this week, which would've been nice.

But you just kind of had to make adjustments along the way. The wind is supposed to stay somewhat similar direction, so at least that kind of helped. Fairways got quite bouncy; you had to make some adjustment.

Q. How about the momentum in the group? I know we talk about it. The three of you all under par, which is an accomplishment today. Do you feed off each other?

MADELENE SAGSTROM: I think so. Every time you play with great players and people shooting good scores, it's like you feed off each other. Both Lydia and Jessica were making putts, so that kind of helped me get some momentum back.

So it's nice. It's always great to play with good players.

Q. What do you plan on doing this afternoon in preparation for tomorrow?

MADELENE SAGSTROM: Going to get some lunch. Probably not going to do much out here because it's still quite breezy. Going to go relax, put my feet up, and read my book.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

 . . . when all is said, we're done.®