

The Ascendant LPGA benefiting Volunteers of America

Friday, September 30, 2022

The Colony, Texas, USA

Golf Clubs at The Tribute

Atthaya Thitikul

TV

THE ASCENDANT LPGA
BENEFITING  Volunteers
of America®

Q. Finishing with an eagle and a birdie, also coming into this week off a win last week in Arkansas. Finding yourself at the top of the leaderboard once again. What did you credit your good play the last two weeks?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Honestly, I think I give all my credit to the putter. I mean, like these two week my putter have really been working on the green. And, yeah.

Q. Judy Rankin today has pointed out your consistency all season long, especially as a rookie. When you look back on your season, do you think it's as consistent as we do, and what would you credit that good play to?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Yeah, I would say yeah. I trying to keep myself in the like contentions and keep -- you know, like hit as good as possible.

Like play on LPGA Tour wasn't easy because like you play against all the best player in the world. So, I mean, I can give credit to myself as well to work really hard, and to all my coaches. Like we work and we figured out what's the problem.

Q. One might expect a little fatigue, especially after a big week last week, couple days this week. Do you feel fatigue? And what will you do this afternoon to prepare for the weekend?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: I'm going to go rest, eat an ice cream, had a good food. I mean, LPGA has really, you know, like tight schedule. This is my second week, so I just go out enjoy, rest. I don't want really want to think about golf that much.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

 . . . when all is said, we're done.®