Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Hye-Jin after her second round at the Meijer LPGA Classic. Just talk about your round today. 5-under, 67.

HYE-JIN CHOI: Today the goal for my round was to be bogey-free, and I tried to be very calm during the round, so it was a good round today.

Q. What do you like most about this golf course?

HYE-JIN CHOI: To talk about this course, depends on the pin location. Yeah, depends on the pin location, so it is very important to manage my course.

If I miss my fairway, it's really hard to hit the second shot on the green. So I try to keep the fairway and I'm going to do it during the third and fourth round, too.

Q. And then can you talk about those last two birdies you had in the last three holes, that last push? How were you feeling after making those last two birdies in the last three holes?

HYE-JIN CHOI: To talk about the last two holes birdie, I made a lot of birdies on the front nine but I had one bogey on par-3. I had a lot of chances, but I missed some. I tried to be calm during the round and I made two good birdies on the last two holes.

Q. This week is important, but next week is another major championship. How do rounds like this make you feel heading into a major championship?

HYE-JIN CHOI: Next week is a very important major championship, and every player will want to play well in this competition.

I'm trying to keep my shots good this week and make my, how to say, like condition better on the shots. I'm looking forward to next week.
