Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Nanna Koerstz Madsen after her third round at the Meijer LPGA Classic. A lot of birdies on your scorecard there today. Just how did it feel out there for you?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Played really well. Struggled a little bit with the putting here and there; also had some good putts.

Overall it was a good day.

Q. How do you think the course conditions kind of changed over the past couple days, especially today?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I didn't notice any big changes. I mean, the greens have been firm all week and I like that. I didn't consider them more firm today than the other days, so pretty similar.

Q. How would you describe those fans out there today. There was a lot of people, and especially coming on 18 I heard there was a ton.

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: Yeah, I mean, of course I was a little in the bushes on 18, but it was really cool. I mean, they're super fun to be out there with so many people.

Yeah, it's just awesome always having a lot of -- a big crowd out there.

Q. Big day tomorrow. Saw you were putting a little bit out there. How do you reset and get ready for tomorrow's round?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I'm just trying to stick to my drills and hopefully they'll work for tomorrow. Yeah, I think I still have some good confidence on the green. There was just some speed things today, but, yeah.

Q. In terms of atmosphere, how does this compare to other stops on the LPGA Tour? And I guess just the community aspect of that, how did that affect how you go into a tournament like this?

NANNA KOERSTZ MADSEN: I mean, like this tournament. I actually haven't been back in four years, and then last year I had my one in four, so I came back and I was really surprised the how big the tournament has grown and how many spectators and how well they treat us players at the tournament.

So I decided to come back again this year, and I just love this event, yeah.
