Atthaya Thitikul

Quick Quotes

Q. Atthaya, a solid finish for you today, 3-under par with birdies on the 3, 9, 10, and 17. Any of those in particular help get your day going and starting really well?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Well, I mean, I hit pretty good shot today, but like I just cannot drop like lots of putts. But I think it's pretty good. It's still a good week for me. Finish fourth, yeah.

Q. How pleased are you with the efforts you put forth in LPGA Tour events? With only a few starts you've been able to showcase your game on the LPGA level and you've done really well. What does it mean to you?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: It's mean a lot to me. You know like this is my first year (indiscernible) and then playing last week, it's major and then finish Top 5 and then here, it's LPGA event as well and finish Top 5 again.

It's really mean to me.

Q. You played with Pajaree and Wichanee today, so some nice Thai connections. How nice was it to have those Thai connections over the weekend and ease you into the weekend and make you feel more comfortable than you already were?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Yeah, it's feel really good to play with Pajaree yesterday and Wichanee today as well. I think it's really good week for us, for all the Thai players. We came up close, up at the top. They both play really well.

Q. Last one I have for you. Two weeks before the British Open. What's your game plan? What's your plan to prepare for that event over the next couple weeks?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Well, I play Scottish and British.
