Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Anne-Charlotte Mora. Take me through your round today, some of the highlights, out there, what was working really well in your game.

ANNE-CHARLOTTE MORA: Today just my putting was really good, and I just started well with the birdie on No. 1 so was pretty cool.

And my putting was okay, was good. I had many chances to birdie and I made them, so it was nice.

Q. Where are the birdie chances out there? Are they on the green for you or approach game? How is it easy to make birdies?

ANNE-CHARLOTTE MORA: It was kind of like everything was going well and the putts went in, so, yeah.

Q. This is a links course. You have a lot of experience on the links?

ANNE-CHARLOTTE MORA: I think like the -- from the Scottish from last two weeks, so it was like kind of prepare me to today I guess. (Laughter.)

Q. And tomorrow switching to a parkland course, are you ready for that? How is that going to be different?

ANNE-CHARLOTTE MORA: I think I prefer those kinds of golf course than links, so I'm happy I'm done with this one and I'm looking forward for tomorrow.

Q. How important is putting going to be for you this week? I know it's a long course tomorrow.

ANNE-CHARLOTTE MORA: Yeah, I think really important because the last tournament wasn't that good, so hopefully stay like that.

Q. I hear your game is trending upwards. Do you feel that way? Do you feel happy with your game right now?

ANNE-CHARLOTTE MORA: Yeah, I think everything is going like upward, like everything, yeah.
