BMW Ladies Championship

Q. Here after your first round at the BMW Ladies Championship. Very solid round for you today. What were some of the highlights out there?

YU JIN SUNG: I think overall the weather was really good and there was no wind, so I was able to play wind. For me overall, the strategies that I had in mind actually played out the way I had in my head, so it worked for me.

Q. What were some of those strategies that you were able to see come out in your play?

YU JIN SUNG: I think my strategy going in today was not to overdo it, and I just wanted to focus on each hole and not so much on the overall score. So I tried to keep my mind off that, and I was able to do that today.

Q. How does it feel playing at this course in your home country, feeding off the crowds and the energy and playing at home?

YU JIN SUNG: I think first and foremost, like we are all really feeding off the support of the fans, and it's really helping my game. I think that's why a lot of the Korean players are now high up on the leaderboard.
