BMW Ladies Championship

Q. Here with Ryann O'Toole after her third round here at the BMW Ladies Championship. Playing some phenomenal golf this week. What's been really working for you?

RYANN O'TOOLE: Just staying patient. I think it's my first week with Travis (ph), and I think we're really working well together. He's keeping it very simple and clear.

And I just -- yeah, I think literally it's being patient, seeing some putts going in and just minimizing the misses.

Q. Is there something about this course that suits your game, or is it that you feel a little more comfortable around? Or what is it about this course that's allowed you to go three straight rounds in the 60s?

RYANN O'TOOLE: I don't know. I would say coming into this event, based off of last year, I would not say this course suited me.

But I came in with an open mind and thought every year is different, and I know it a bit better. And just tried to take it as it came.

So I think I spent the last two weeks really grinding in the heat back in Arizona, so it feels good to be in some cooler weather. Maybe that helps.

Q. Very bunched up at the top. What's it going to take tomorrow to separate yourself?

RYANN O'TOOLE: I mean, I'm not going to put it past anybody. I think it's going to really take a good round tomorrow. So just hope I can get another solid round and see where it leaves me.
