Quick Quotes

Q. Probably not as low as you wanted to go, but still a solid round today. Did you meet your goals again today?

RUONING YIN: No. Yeah, I made fairway, yeah, and -- yeah, only fairway.

Q. What was today like? I know it was kind of pressure packed. You were up at the top of the leaderboard, had the 54-hole lead. How did you feel out there today?

RUONING YIN: I mean, just only a little pressure, but I think, yeah, because I made a lot of birdies, but also a lot of bogeys.

Yeah, just my approach shot not online today, yeah. For par-3 I make three bogeys, yeah, so not good for me.

Q. But are you happy with the week overall?

RUONING YIN: Yeah, yeah. The final goal is make through to final stage, yeah.

Q. So you're into Q-Series. What's your prep going to look like?

RUONING YIN: Top 45, yeah. Yeah.

Q. How are you going to prepare?

RUONING YIN: Prepare? Try to get my iron shot more stable, and, yeah, I think my short game is pretty good though.

Q. What was it like today playing with Xiaowen, a person you've known from your junior golf days?

RUONING YIN: Feels amazing to play with Chinese people and we have a lot fun out there. Yeah, it's really nice.

Q. So you met some of your goals this week. How are you going to reward yourself in watch a movie? More Breaking Bad?

RUONING YIN: We're going to Universal tomorrow. Yeah, excited.

Q. Who are you going with?

RUONING YIN: My coach and also Xiaowen.

Q. So you're both going?

RUONING YIN: Yeah.

Q. Are you super excited?

RUONING YIN: Yeah, super, because it's been very tired of this week, yeah.

Q. How much of a strain was it for you? You're pretty young. Did you feel any of the stress? Did it make you tired at all?

RUONING YIN: Oh, just, I mean, you got to pay a lot attention to -- you know, after four rounds actually you can't really focus on your shot. Yeah.

Q. So what are you looking forward to at Q-Series? What are you excited for? Have you played golf in Alabama before?

RUONING YIN: No. I heard it's going to be cold and, yeah, and also I think two weeks. Yeah, maybe do more fitness and cardio prepare for the two weeks.
