Quick Quotes

Q. All right, what was it like resetting between week one and now week two of Q-Series?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Resetting, is like reset...

Q. Like regrouping yourself, preparing for week two.

PEIYUN CHIEN: I just think it's because we still have four days to play so I need to keep my energy. I didn't play yesterday and I just play 18 for this course.

Q. So you didn't practice yesterday?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Not in the course.

Q. Oh.

PEIYUN CHIEN: Yeah.

Q. Why?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Because I play, you know, the (indiscernible) tour already three times, so I think that's enough for me. And we have all (indiscernible), so I think if I trust and commit every shot what I want it should be okay.

Q. What was the preparation like for this Q-Series, for these weeks as compared to anything else this past year?

PEIYUN CHIEN: My gosh, it's so hard.

Q. It's okay.

PEIYUN CHIEN: I feel play Q-Series you cannot have big number in your score. And I already play one year Symetra Tour and I know my game and I know when I will miss.

So I control my ball very well in this two weeks, especially my iron. I think it's really good. Just sometimes the putting is pretty hard to read.

So I pretty improve myself, and just very excite to go back to LPGA and just play any tournament. I really want to go back.

Q. How difficult is it not to think about getting back to the LPGA and just finish out this tournament as best you can?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Yeah...

Q. Or is that difficult?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Good question. It is so hard, because if you want to control something, if you want to have good score, everything you cannot control, I always think about that, you know, maybe before two years ago.

I just start learning just focus front, don't think about too many future. You have to do very solid, exactly what you want and it will happen.

Q. Yeah.

PEIYUN CHIEN: The birdie will come even you play -- you already play like eight holes or nine holes par, but you still need to believe and you can just do it.

Q. Yeah, very insightful.

PEIYUN CHIEN: Insightful.

Q. You're not done with this round. You'll come back tomorrow and finish. How do you feel the first holes that you got in today went for you?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Should be very cold and we need to get ready, you know, but my -- the hole is par-4 so it's okay. If the par-3 I would practice more the distance.

So I think should be okay, yeah.

Q. And what do you think worked the best today in your favor? What do you think was working well in your game?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Irons. I play with the Thai player. She's so good.

Q. Atthaya?

PEIYUN CHIEN: Yeah. She make every putt, so I still thinking I need to learn a lot with the putting. But there is a lot in the putting, yeah.
