Quick Quotes

Q. So another solid round for you today. You seem a lot more comfortable on this kind of grass now. How are you feeling after six rounds?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: After third round last week the shot is getting better, so I don't get any bogeys, so it's getting better I guess.

Q. No bogeys is nice. Just evaluate your game. You've played six really solid rounds of golf. How would you evaluate how you played?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: It's minus (indiscernible - wind) points because I three-putted on 8, so it's not 100 points, so...

Q. I mean, through six rounds you're looking pretty good. You're squarely inside the top 45 and ties. I know we have two rounds left to go, but what's your mindset and how excited are you to get the opportunity to play on the LPGA?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: You never know. We have two more rounds, but I'm really excited to play LPGA.

But I'm going to play my best for two more rounds.

Q. What will you work on ahead of the last two rounds?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: Yeah, I'm going to play under par next two days, yeah.

Q. How is the energy level? It is a lot golf in not a lot of time. How are you feeling? Are you tired?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: Yeah, I'm so tired. Very tired.

Q. What do you do to keep your energy up then?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: Sleep, sleep well.

Q. Awesome. What are you looking forward to the last two rounds tomorrow and Sunday?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: I'm going to bed. (Laughter.)

Q. I love it. One last quick question. You have some fans out here, some people that have come over to support you as you go through this process. How comforting is it having those fans around?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: This is not my home country, outside of my home country, but I hear all the Japanese fans yelling at me. That's very comfortable. Yeah, I like it.
