Q. 18 holes to go, is there an excitement or a relief?

NA RIN AN: I think I'm more excited.

Q. What has this last day been like for you and how have you evaluated your play over the last couple of days as you get ready for the final day?

NA RIN AN: I think overall today it wasn't a bad day, despite the wind I think I played pretty well. Looking back the pass seven rounds I think I played okay.

Q. It was relatively a more windy day today. How do you think you faired as those conditions kept up and what did it mean to escape the rain?

NA RIN AN: I think I tried to hit my shots as low as possible and I'm happy that we were able to avoid the rain.

Q. We talked a little bit about it yesterday, but 18 holes and a LPGA Tour card within reach, how have you been kind of, how excited are you for the end of this gauntlet of play and to come out of it potentially more than likely with a LPGA Tour card?

NA RIN AN: I'm happy to know that we are getting to the end of this long eight rounds and I think when everything is over I would just like to rest.
