Quick Quotes

Q. Here we are off the green of eight rounds of Q-Series. It's been a couple crazy rounds of golf. Just how are you feeling now that you secured a tour card for 2022?

STEPHANIE KYRIACOU: Yeah, I feel quite good. I mean, coming into last week I played an event the week before so I was worried about the jet lag and all that, and then I had a really good first week which kind of took a little bit of pressure off.

But, I mean, I didn't play that good this week but managed to smack it around, and, yeah, get some scores that will keep me up there. So, yeah, it's pretty exciting.

Q. This is definitely I want to say a dream come true for you.

STEPHANIE KYRIACOU: Yeah, yeah, it is. I mean, you dream about it when you're a kid, so to actually be playing on LPGA next year will be fun. (Laughter.)

Q. You know, going into today there is so much pressure. I know it's kind of sometimes hard to settle the nerves. Did you feel that as you were moving along today, that this could be an opportunity, this is becoming real?

STEPHANIE KYRIACOU: Yeah, I kind of felt a little bit of pressure because I had so many friends and family and supporters back home sending me messages. So I was like, oh, my God. Shoot even par or something, like I wasn't even trying.

But, yeah, it was good. I played good today. I did grind it out a bit. Some good up and downs the last few holes. Yeah, I'm happy.

Q. And I mean, now it's off-season. Looking ahead, just how exhilarating is it to go from a successful LET season to next year on LPGA?

STEPHANIE KYRIACOU: Yeah, it's pretty exciting. I'm just trying to get back home. I just got to pass my COVID test today and I'll be excited to get home, see my family and friends, and then worry about the golf in a couple weeks or so.
