Alisa Rodriguez

Quick Quotes

Q. To start off, what does it mean to you to have Lindsey, a friend, on the bag this week?

ALISA RODRIGUEZ: I mean, it's better than my dad, but don't tell him that. (Laughter.)

No, I'm just excited to have somebody that like plays golf and is really good at golf, and just to get some extra reads or extra eyes on the reads. It's going to be great to this week.

Q. How do your personalities complement each other and how will that help this week?

ALISA RODRIGUEZ: Oh, we were just talking about that earlier. We are both very indecisive, so hopefully our indecisiveness will equal one decisive person. (Laughter.)

No, but we just get along really well. We been friends since high school, so, yeah, I'm really happy she decided to come out and caddie for me this week and it'll be fun.

Q. Moving on, so if you qualify for Q-Series -- so weird not saying Stage III -- but if you qualify for Q-Series do you think this will continue?

ALISA RODRIGUEZ: Hopefully. You know, hopefully she doesn't fire me or I don't fire her, but I know my dad would definitely love for her to caddie in Q-Series.

Q. And then I'm trying to think of that last question. We were talking about personalities. I'm also indecisive so that really just threw me for a loop. I was like, girl, same. Like you kind of said having somebody out here that like plays the game and knows the game. Do you think that -- that's what it was -- do you think it takes some pressure off with like practice and just being able to go out there and have fun with each other?

ALISA RODRIGUEZ: Uh-huh, yeah. I think with my dad, we don't have the same conversations that Lindsey and I would have, so just to be able to go out and kind of just have my dad as a fan versus being more the caddie or the coach, it definitely takes a lot of pressure off.
