Quick Quotes

Q. So a solid first round. How did it feel walking off that last green?

BECCA HUFFER: Obviously feels good to start well out here, because it's a marathon. Having a good start is always nice. Takes a little pressure off.

So it was good. Some things I can do better with, but hopefully just keep it going.

Q. Like you said, marathon, not a sprint. How do you take today and kind of prepare, but also not overthink the next three rounds?

BECCA HUFFER: You know, just kind of the same mindset. Just targets, one shot at a time, the cliché.

But just remembering my targets and just play the same kind of golf. It's not going to be perfect, but it doesn't need to be perfect out here.

Just see what happens.

Q. And then how do you keep positive and in your own game with factors like the wind and it being freezing this morning, knowing that there is a bit of a cold front coming through? How do you keep positive with that?

BECCA HUFFER: You know, I think, it's, one, you know everyone is playing in it, so you just have to stay calm and be like, okay, not every shot -- like I said, not every shot is going to be perfect, and just play with what it's letting you do for the day.

So try and not make big numbers and just take the birdies when you can.

Q. And then obviously everybody's goal out here is to advance and have a shot at Q-Series. Factoring that away from it, what are your goals on the course, whether it's physically, mentally with your game, what are you setting for yourself other than advance?

BECCA HUFFER: Yeah, just playing steady golf. If I could have three more days like this, that would be great. Just try not get too wound up with it. Like I said, it's a lot of golf and everyone is playing it and it's a long day.

It's just too much energy to spend doing something else. So just try and enjoy it and have fun, and see how it goes.
