Quick Quotes

Q. So confirm, Notre Dame for school?

BECCA HUFFER: Yes.

Q. What years did you go?

BECCA HUFFER: 2008 to 2012.

Q. Perfect.

BECCA HUFFER: Four years, yeah.

Q. And then what is your career-best finish and/or your biggest accomplishment or what you're most proud of in your career so far?

BECCA HUFFER: Career, I've had I guess on Epson like a second; I haven't won.

But then I won the Colorado open twice in 2013 and 2019. Played LPGA in 2019, so that was good. Yeah, that's it off the top of my head.

Q. All good. Do you know your career-best round?

BECCA HUFFER: 64.

Q. Why did you decide to pursue professional golf as a career, and why do you bring yourself out here every week and keep doing it?

BECCA HUFFER: Sometimes I ask myself that. Yeah, I really enjoy the competition and just have that where I know where I want to be playing, so that's what keeps me going, is seeing how well I can do.

Q. And then what do you like to do off the golf course? What are your hobbies?

BECCA HUFFER: I like music and books. I attempt to play guitar. Drawing. A little bit of photography. Watching movies.

Q. Do you have a favorite movie or one that's a go-to?

BECCA HUFFER: I don't know, I guess like some comedies. Or to go really nerdy, I really like Lord of the Rings.

Q. And then you said you're into music. Do you have a favorite artist or song?

BECCA HUFFER: Not really. I like rock and Indy, kind of along those lines. It changes up a lot, so...

Q. If you weren't a professional golfer what do you think you would be doing?

BECCA HUFFER: Well, I got a degree in industrial design, so maybe something along those lines.
