Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Robyn Choi, LPGA Q-Series 2023 medalist and now newest LPGA Tour member. Has it sunk in yet? Still nice to hear?

ROBYN CHOI: I mean, I think that's always nice to hear. No, it hasn't really sunk in yet. I don't know, it's been a long week and a half, just a lot of golf.

I don't know, just been focusing on playing; haven't really been focusing on the results that much.

To bring a win into Q-Series, that's pretty big for me, so I'm happy with that.

Q. You mentioned the win. Made all your cuts on the Epson Tour. Did not win. Come to Q-Series with LPGA players, Epson players, and you come out on top. What type of confidence does that give you going into your rookie year on the LPGA?

ROBYN CHOI: I think a win out here, I think it means a lot. Just when I'm playing on Epson we really just get to play along with the Epson girls, but to play with kind of like all around LPGA, Epson, and like from other tours, you know, just to win, now I know where I would stand against the rest of the players out there, so that's good for me.

Q. Mom on the bag this week.

ROBYN CHOI: Uh-huh.

Q. Talk about that a little bit. What does it mean that she's on the bag when you earn that LPGA Tour card?

ROBYN CHOI: Had a lot of support for me. I had my mom on my bag during the Epson tournaments as well, and I think she helped me bring out the good results with no cuts this year.

You know, she's just always feeding me, just trying to keep my -- keep me in the best, you know, to put out my best performance as I can.

So, no, just having her and knowing that she's out there supporting me is always a big help. You know, just having someone there, you know, they're always having my back, so, yeah.

Q. Going into the LPGA Tour season of 2024 what are you most looking forward to?

ROBYN CHOI: Not sure. I haven't really thought about that yet. Like my main focus was trying to just get my card. But I think just get to play with the top players in the world and I can just -- you know, I play golf because I like golf, and if you're playing on a world stage then you can't really ask for more than that.
