Q. Gurleen, so second year in a row making it through final stage of qualifying. Going to be heading back to the LPGA Tour. Kind of just talk about your last season and how it prepared you to come back here and now heading back to the LPGA. What does that mean?

GURLEEN KAUR: Yeah, I'm super excited. I think my game was shaping up in the end of the year to be really good, and mentally felt like I was in a great place coming here. Kind of a little shaky after round two, but, I mean, this place sometimes plays tough. You know, just have to make your way through it.

And, yeah, I'm just really excited to be back out in year two just to have a little bit more experience, see the golf courses again.

Q. Talk about this week mentally. It's not the easiest mental week when it's cold, rainy, delays. How do you stay within yourself and in the mindset of still playing competitive golf?

GURLEEN KAUR: Yeah, I think it's so hard because, I mean, especially in Mobile you get every condition possible. I think we -- there was fog even this morning. So you just have to kind of see what happens. Like you just got to play with it instead of fight it.

I think that's the key to Q-School, and also treating it like any other tournament. You can't really put more pressure on yourself than you already do.

Q. Anything you learned from your last season or first season on the LPGA you're going to try to take into the first half of next year and the full season of the LPGA?

GURLEEN KAUR: Yeah, just basically that I feel like my game is good enough to be out there, and just mentally just want to have as much self-belief as I possibly can. Just learn that every week is a new week and it's takes one week to get it going out there.
