Quick Quotes

Q. Gigi, so last year got your card; not the best status this year. Much better status, full status. How does it feel to go on to the LPGA playing a full schedule?

GIGI STOLL: Yeah, I think last year was good prep for what could happen. I'm really happy to have finished really well this week and to get the job done and be able to kind of redeem myself after an okay season last year.

And a couple more starts this year. Should be a really exciting year.

Q. Talk about last year. Is there anything you learned that you'll try to take over into this upcoming LPGA season?

GIGI STOLL: Yeah, being on the big stage is a little different. There are more people out there. There are grandstands on every 18th hole. There is a lot more going on.

I think it was just a good adjustment to see what it's like to be out there. Even though I didn't get a whole lot of the starts, I got a feel of what it's like to be out there. I think that will prep me a lot this year, just being able to see those courses and kind of get familiar with the way it's set up.

It should be good preparation for what's to come.

Q. Like you said, got a few events in. Is there any event that maybe you didn't get in or any stretch of events that you didn't get in the first time around that you're really looking to heading to this year?

GIGI STOLL: Yeah, I didn't get into my first event until about June, so the first half of the year I'm excited to compete in and try and make my mark on the beginning of the year.
