Quick Quotes

Q. All right, Jin Young, four days here, top 10 finish. How are you feeling after four days at Aviara?

JIN YOUNG KO: It feels tired. Seriously.

Well, I wasn't playing good on the front nine but I did a strong finish on the back nine, so I'm so happy.

I'm so proud myself. And I make putt eagle -- I make eagle and birdie in last three holes, so it was pretty cool. But these greens are really tough.

But I can take great positive things from this week to next week before the major, so, yeah, I'm looking forward.

Q. What positives things will you take away from your play this week?

JIN YOUNG KO: Well, my swing was better than yesterday, so I can feel I can do better play for next week, even major or over this year.

So, yeah, it was a little chilly out there but was fun. A lot of people out there, so...

Q. Well it will be hot in the desert, a place you have some really awesome memories. How excited are you to get back to this major championship?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, I'm very excited to play next week majors, but this is a little sad, too, last tournament on the Mission Hills.

Yeah, I will miss Poppy's Pond and on the bridge, and, well, cross fingers to again.
