Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Weiwei after the completion of her second round at The Chevron Championship. Just talk about the delay and coming back here this morning.

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yeah, this morning I got bogey 18 hole. I think that's birdie chance, but I got bogey, so just little sad, yes.

Q. Can you talk about yesterday? You had several birdies yesterday.

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yes, yesterday my approach is pretty good and I hit very close to the pin so I got five birdies. Ten hole I got five birdies, so I made a lot of short putt.

That's why, because my approach great.

Q. And after being here this morning, what are your plans for this afternoon? I know you don't know your tee time exactly yet, but what are you thinking to get ready for the third round?

WEIWEI ZHANG: I think for afternoon I still just play just like yesterday, aggressive, and just keep my strategies. Yeah, just don't be afraid. Just go ahead.

Q. That's been your approach this whole week, to be aggressive?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yes.

Q. What was your thought process on deciding to do that this week? Why are you deciding to do that?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Because I like the course. I have very good position last year, so last year I was very -- not very aggressive, but this year I just try aggressive because my iron shot feeling great. Yes.
