

The Chevron Championship

Sunday, April 27, 2025

The Woodlands, Texas, USA

The Club at Carlton Woods

Jin Young Ko

Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Jin Young after her final round of The Chevron Championship. How would you summarize this week for you?

JIN YOUNG KO: Was long week for me. After second round I finished at maybe 7:30, between like 8:00 and I tee off 8:30 or 9:00 on Saturday, so I slept only six hours.

I felt like my sleep time was gone. It was long week for me, but overall I play solid. I was hitting shank too and I finished well, so I'm very happy to finish top 10.

It's very thankful.

Q. Was it at all in the back of your mind -- you're a major champion; was it at all in the back of your mind as you're climbing the leaderboard, I guess just the confidence that you've done it before?

JIN YOUNG KO: I mean, I missed the cut last year so I lose a little confidence on the Houston, but I figure it out, so I'm very happy.

Q. How would you just describe when you're in this place where you're not hitting the ball the best you could be to still get away with some of these rounds and post a good score? How are you doing that?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, I mean, I realize why this week -- why like major was so tough, and I'm learning so many things from this week. I don't know, I can't wait to U.S. Open.

Q. What did you learn most about yourself this week?

JIN YOUNG KO: Well, my game under 100 meters not good. So I think I need to practice more under 100 meters. Could be better I hope. We'll see at the U.S. Open.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports

