Q. I'm here with Peiyun Chien after the second round of the Kroger Queen City Championship. A nice 8-under today with a few birdies and an eagle out there. Can you talk us through those birdies and the eagle specifically?

PEIYUN CHIEN: I just putt very well these two days.

And the eagle is amazing. I was thinking maybe it was go in because I have a lot of shot almost went in couple weeks, but I'm still waiting for a eagle. But it just happened, so I'm very happy.

Q. This is your lowest round of the year thus far. What have you been working our on in your game that you think happened this week?

PEIYUN CHIEN: I change driver this week and it works very well. And I always change my putter. If anyone knows me I change every week, but I keep the same putter already eight tournaments, so I'm very proud of myself.

Q. And as of right now you have a five-shot lead. Headed into the next two days, what will be your goal?

PEIYUN CHIEN: It's the same: Just every shot, one thing at a time, and I really want to play well in America and go back to Asia, play Asian Games for my country.
