Q. Here now with Hyo Joon after her third round here at the Kroger Queen City Championship presented by P&G. Bogey-free round today. What was working so well for you?

HYO JOON JANG: Well, I would say my full swing and greens in regulation was pretty high, so you had a lot of chance of birdies. That made a lot of good pars, too.

No bogeys for that.

Q. Going back to your first round, two bogeys and a birdie on your scorecard. Have you been able to really figure out this course the more you played it?

HYO JOON JANG: I was just trying to think more simple way, each one shot; fairway always takes good for the greens. So that always made me better, better, better.

Q. How does this course maybe suit your strengths or playing style?

HYO JOON JANG: I would say you just need a good spot for the course management, and my caddie is really helping a lot for that. So I would say that helps me for scoring good.

Q. And what have you made of TPC River's Bend? What do you like about the course?

HYO JOON JANG: I would say good conditions on the green, so greens are pretty much truth. You see the slope and it goes where you see. So I like how they set up the greens.

Q. Last one: What's the mindset heading into tomorrow?

HYO JOON JANG: I mean, use any opportunity, so I'm just going to start again same routine, have good rest, and
